

Incorporating Performing Arts

Each page of Around the World Right Now is a moment frozen in time in a different somewhere in the world. Each city has its own unique qualities and culture.

Break your students up into groups and have them choose one page from the story. Give them opportunities to examine the city that they have chosen further, by using the internet and your local or school library to research more information. In their group, allow them to create a short scene from that page; unfreezing the moment and making the page come to life.

To help them create their scene, they can answer the following questions about their city.

City: _____

Who are the characters: _____

_____

What is the action happening on the page: _____

_____

What happened right before this moment in time: _____

_____

What is about to happen: _____

_____

What is the first line: _____
